Lodge Kitzbüheler Alpen

Ferienhaus in Brixen im Thale

The Lodge Kitzbüheler Alpen is in a great location right on the slopes. It was meticulously rebuilt in 2024 using various natural materials and with great attention to detail, located at an altitude of 950 meters directly in the ski and hiking area of Wilder Kaiser Brixental in the attic of an old farmhouse. In winter, you can ski directly from the lodge, and in summer you are right in the middle of the wonderful hiking area of Brixental. The large living and dining area with a vaulted ceiling and a fantastic view of the Kitzbüheler Horn and Hohe Salve is the absolute highlight of the lodge. Sleep wonderfully in high-quality deluxe double rooms with comfortable box spring beds, each with an en suite bathroom, and start your day with a dreamlike view. The lodge has a private entrance, a storage area for skis and ski boots with a ski boot dryer, and a balcony with breathtaking views. A daily bread roll service is available to you.
